This afternoon I am going to town with my family. First we are going to the department store. My mom said she is going to buy me a new toy. After that we are going to eat at my favorite sushi restaurant. My favorite type of sushi is tuna.

After eating sushi, we are going to see a movie. I love to see movies. After the movie I am going to get new shoes. The ones I have now are smelly and have many holes. Finally, we are going to my friend's house. It is his birthday today. He is going to have a big party.
